What is a Reasonable Accommodation?
Led by Darlene Hemerka, Staff Attorney from The Public Interest Law Center

This presentation will explore what a reasonable accommodation is under the Americans with Disabilities Act. It will begin by discussing who is eligible for a reasonable accommodation. Then the discussion will move to examples of accommodations and provide tips for requesting an accommodation and disclosing disability. The presentation will conclude with information about what an employee can do if an employer denies an accommodation request.

Our simultaneous Peer Support Group is facilitated in a separate room. The topic this month will be Creativity with a project to make Inspiration Stones.
