Peer Support Group: Strengths, Interests and Dreams Equals a Fulfilled Life Pizza Served
This group will help individuals identify personal attributes and goals that can positively impact life in the home, community and real world of work.

Thursday, October 18th 6:00pm-7:30pm

Family Support Group: Reframing Expectations: Setting and Achieving Realistic Outcomes in Postsecondary Living, Jordan Hollander M.Ed BCBA, Clinical Development Director of Kaleidoscope Family Solutions. Using a person-centered approach combined with the principles of Applied Behavior Analysis, Jordan Hollander will focus on rethinking values, identifying strengths, and how to start teaching your family skills that are essential for success in the real world.

Peer Support Group: Reciprocal Conversations to Create Lasting Relationships Pizza Served
Individuals often have challenges forming lasting relationships that include meaningful and reciprocal conversations. This group will use role-modeling to practice effective dialogues with others.

Thursday, November 8th 6:00pm-7:30pm

Family Support Group: How to Maximize Your Rights for Special Needs in School and the Postsecondary World with Jennifer Grobe, Esq., of McAndrews Law Offices, PC. This discussion will examine what "transition planning" really means, and what it may include. Special education law provides that every student should have post-secondary goals accompanied by transition services to support their shift from childhood to adulthood. Knowing your rights can help maximize this opportunity to design and achieve the unique future you envision.

Peer Support Group: The Lessons of Disney's "Inside Out" Pizza Served
Using the concept of Disney's "Inside Out," this group will focus on identifying and accepting feelings.
